

Follow the route on your map, stopping at each of the places marked and answer the questions below.

1. What do you think this statue is called?
2. How long is the Serpentine Tunnel?
3. Does the Octagon Tower have the correct number of sides?
4. The Temple of Fame is an architectural deceit – what is not as it seems?
5. At Anne Boleyn's Seat – what is William Aislalie's surprise view?
6. Infirmary, find the large grate which was a medieval waste-disposal unit – estimate its size.
How many channels does the River Skell flow through under the Infirmary?
7. There is a masonry stitch to repair a crack in a window arch at the east end of the Abbey church.
What is carved on the outside?

What is carved on the inside?

What year is carved on the scroll held by the figure on the inside?

On the north wall of the Abbey church, east of the tower, find the one remaining pillar. Count how many pillars were along that wall.

The whole of the inside of the church was one colour. Look carefully – what was the colour?

Estimate the height of Huby's Tower.

On an arch in the south transept of the church is the carving of an angel holding a shield. What is on the shield?

How many massive Norman pillars are there in the church?
8. How many pillars are there in the CELLARIUM?
9. How many arched entrances to toilet cubicles are there in the lay-brothers' reredorter?

The monks were given 'drawers' to wear on a journey – what were the 'drawers'?

10. Find the Industrial Buildings – what can you find that shows that water was used here?

How was the round stone structure used to heat water?

What was hot water needed for here?

11. In the Mill.

Clues are in the flip books as well as the artefact cases. Make sure you look in both.

The Abbey would often receive letters from the Pope in Rome. The Abbot knew whether it was good news or bad news without reading the letter, how?

Find three different purposes for the Oyster shell.

- a.
- b.
- c.

What material was used by the monks when they needed black ink?

The monks had their own fish ponds. What material did they use to make their hooks?

What material did the monks use to make their quills?

What year was the abbey closed, and who was responsible for closing it?

When the Abbey sold its wool how did the people at customs know that a tax had been paid?

What evidence is there for piped water in the monastery?

What evidence is there that the Mill used to be a lot bigger?

What is an undershot mill wheel?