

Group 7

Follow the route on your map, stopping at each of the places marked and answer the questions below. (When you are given a choice, cross out the wrong answer or circle the correct answer.)

1. On the entrance gates at Studley there is a red head - is this
Pan the Roman god of flocks and shepherds OR Bacchus the god of wine
What word meaning 'excessive fear' comes from Pan's name? _____
2. Inside the Banqueting House is a portrait of the Sultan of Surat riding

The Banqueting House has 3 faces carved on the outside – are they
Splendour, Abundance and Jollity OR Hatred, Malice and Envy
3. The head of which animal is carved on the freize on the Temple of Piety?
.....
Why is the pond in front of the Temple of Piety called the Moon Pond?
.....
The statue in the middle of the Moon Pond is of _____
4. Estimate the length of the Serpentine Tunnel.
5. Does the Octagon Tower have the correct number of sides? Yes / No
6. The Temple of Fame is an architectural deceit – something has been done to fool you – feel the building to find out what it is.
It is
7. At Anne Boleyn's Seat – what is William Aislable's surprise view?
.....
8. How many arched entrances to toilet cubicles are there in the lay-brothers' reredorter?

9. How many pillars are there in the Cellarium? _____
10. Find the Industrial Buildings – what can you find that shows that water was used here?

11. Stand on Mill Bridge looking upstream. Where does the water on the left come from?

Look downstream – what evidence can you see that the river didn't always follow its present path?

Look at the bridge downstream – which part was built later and why was it added?

Look at the guest houses downstream – why did they have water running under the corner rooms?

12. Stand on the path and look at the outside of Fountains Hall. At first sight it looks symmetrical – find 4 ways in which the left and right sides differ.

On either side of the sundial on Fountains Hall is a statue – one is Saturn the Roman god of agriculture and sowing, the other is Mars the Roman god of war.

Mars is on the left / right

Which 2 days and which month are named after these 2 gods?

What are the initials of the man who built Fountains Hall? You can find them above the doorway.

Find and complete the date – 17__

Go up the bottom steps and look at the Vyner memorial glass. Write the names of the 2 young people and where they died.

1)

2)

Go up the steps – who unveiled the memorial?

Inside – where can you find horses' heads?

Name 1 fruit in the carving over the fireplace.

What was the gallery over the end of the hall for?